

REMOTE

VEX[®]

ROBOTICS WORLD
CHAMPIONSHIP

PRESENTED BY

NORTHROP GRUMMAN
FOUNDATION

REMOTE JUDGE ROLE OVERVIEW

Description	Interview teams remotely using web conferencing software. Evaluate and rank interview responses using web-based tools. Deliberate on award winners.
Experience and Skills Needed	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Attention to detail• Impartiality• Effective communications• Good time management skills• Robotics judging experience preferred
Commitment & Time Frame	Judging will be conducted in 3-hour shifts. Judges may volunteer for as many shifts as they are able. Short breaks will be provided. Judging will take place on weekends starting in April and conclude in May.
Report To	Please log in to your scheduled web conferencing environment 15 minutes prior to your scheduled shift.
Mandatory Training Before Event	A brief online training will be sent to judges well in advance of their first scheduled shift.
Optional Preparation for Judging	Review the Game Manual, Judge Guide, and additional judging information for your assigned competition. The official Game Manuals can be found online: Judge Guide and Judge Guide Addendum <ul style="list-style-type: none">• VRC and VEX U Official Change-Up Game Manual Appendix B: Skills Manual• VEX IQ Challenge Official Rise Above Game Manual
Dress Code	Business casual clothing that is appropriate for a student audience. Judges will be expected to be on-camera during the entire interview process.